

The Season of Vampires! And....What goes "Bump in the Night"!

By: Carrie Triko

Vampires, Real or Fiction? So many of us ask these questions during this time of the year when everything that goes "bump in the night" and has us on edge! Is this a creature or some sort of a blood-sucking human with a gruesome need or sick fetish?

With the publishing of Bram Stoker's novel "Dracula" in 1897 the world became obsessed with the thought of this ghoul of the night, stalking its prey, and draining the blood of their victims. During this time of the year, do you turn around in the night to see if one of these creatures may be following you? Does the full moon give you pause to question whether these beings actually exist...

The History of Halloween

By: Ronald Murphy

Why do we love this time of the year so much? Why do we actually enjoy being afraid? Part of Halloween is confronting deep-seated fears knowing that they are contrived. We can confront monsters on our own terms. We can also face the unknown. And truly, the unknown is a theme indelibly etched into Halloween.

Historian and paranormal investigator Ronald Murphy is fascinated by this time of year and has extensively delved into the mystique of this holiday. He has uncovered the history of Halloween is one that is rooted in the distant past but is constantly evolving and being reinterpreted with each generation. What began as an end-of-summer agricultural festival now has become a time for children to dress up and go door to door asking for candy. Murphy explores the pagan origin of this autumnal holiday and attempts to shed light on some of the iconic traditions...

Arthur Snead

By: Melissa Keen

Hill View Manor has a long history. Our building is celebrating its 95th birthday this year. Before it was Hill View, it was the Lawrence County Home for the Aged, the Lawrence County Poor Farm, and was part of the farmland prior to the building that was worked by one of the original poor farms, located just down the road, behind where Shenango High School currently stands. That's over 150 years of recorded history, which means countless stories to be told, and countless souls that passed through. We are uncovering more information every day, hoping to share those stories and remember the people who called this area home...

Evidence Night 2021

By: Dawn Chute

Evidence Night has become one of our favorite events of the year! We showcase what you, our guests, have caught throughout the season. This year was no exception! We received dozens of entries, from still photos to EVPs! Even with tech issues (this is Hill View after all), we had a great time. This event was well attended and we expect many more events like this in the future.

The big winner of the night was Sage Gatto!...

Halloween at Haunted Hill View Manor

By: Denise Bollinger

It is that time of the year when ghosts and goblins roam about the earth in their own haunting ways seeking us out to let us know they are here and testing us to be afraid? Halloween and Trick or Treating have been a favorite time of the year for many people, children of course but adults as well. We all enjoy a good scare at times and so it was also enjoyed and celebrated by the residents of Hill View Manor. The history of activities for the residents, some who still reside there, was a full entertaining atmosphere especially on Halloween...
